

Marywood Franciscan Spirituality Center presents...

Eco-Spirituality and Interconnection: The Eternal Web

A Winter Weekend Retreat

February 14-16, 2025

What must you know about yourself to continue to grow as part of the Earth community?

Join us as we explore what it means to be embodied in our eco-spirituality and reflect on how our understanding of the source underlying all existence has evolved over time.

Staying onsite in a private room in a shared cabin on Trout Lake: $400

Commuting to Marywood: $280

Scholarships available!

Free to Veterans, Spouses, and Caregivers through Vilas County
Veterans Service Office

Retreaters are encouraged to purchase the book Church of the Wild:
How Nature Invites Us into the Sacred by Victoria Loorz. Participate in outdoor activities connecting to your spirituality on Trout Lake, embody your experience with Ecstatic Dance, and have meaningful discussions with others on their eco-spiritual journey.

To register or inquire, contact Marywood by emailing marywood.center@gmail.com, or by calling 715-385-3750.
